

Unicorn Theatre Internship Opportunity: Production/ Technical Intern

Production and Technical Interns will gain hands on experience creating the physical production of a play at a small non-profit theatre. Production Interns can choose to help in the area that interests them, including lights, sound, stage management, and set construction etc. The staff will provide each intern with training, guidance and professional knowledge catered to their interests.

The ideal candidate will:

- possess strong communication, problem solving, and organizational skills
- have at least an intermediate knowledge of their field of interest
- work efficiently in collaborative and independent environments
- be flexible in their time commitment
- be open to accepting guidance and training

The Commitment: Depending on your interest the hours may vary. Some production interns are hired on a show by show basis while others can choose to work for a semester or more. Interns working as Production Assistants on a Stage Management team are required to be available for all rehearsals and performances.

Compensation: College credit may be available through your school. An impressive resume-builder.

Deadline: We accept internship inquiries throughout the year. Send us your information and we'll figure out the best time to set up an interview.

To apply, candidates must submit the following materials:

1. Resume with references (documenting related experience)
2. Cover Letter (including):
 - Your career goals
 - Your interest in the arts, particularly contemporary theatre
 - What you have to offer the Unicorn
 - Indication of availability
